University of Sierra Leone Celebrates Milestone Achievement in International Ranking

The Administration of the University of Sierra Leone is delighted to announce a significant milestone in the institution's journey toward academic excellence. In the recently released HE Higher Education Ranking 2026 Edition, the University has been ranked 470th out of 507 participating universities, a commendable achievement that reflects the University's growing reputation and commitment to quality education.

This accomplishment is attributed to the transformative leadership of the Vice Chancellor Professor Aiah R Lebbie and his dedicated team. The Chancellor, PC Dr. Margaret Baio Gbanie IV, has extended warm congratulations to the Vice Chancellor and all those whose hard work and cooperation made this recognition possible.

In particular, the Vice Chancellor, Professor Aiah Lebbie, has commended the team responsible for providing accurate and timely data during the ranking process, underscoring the importance of transparency and institutional readiness.

The official ranking results, along with a comprehensive performance report, are now accessible online. The report offers valuable insights into the University's performance and includes the following:

- Overview of Institutional Performance
- Recommendations for Growth and Excellence
- Identification of Areas for Improvement
- Highlights of Institutional Strengths
- Comparative Benchmarking with Peer Institutions
- Best Practices and Opportunities for Growth
- Future Trends and Strategic Insights
- Custom Action Plans and Multi-Year Improvement Strategies
- Predictive Modeling for Institutional Development

In addition, a detailed White Paper has been prepared to support stakeholder engagement and media communications, providing deeper insight into the University's progress and strategic direction.

The University community is encouraged to view the full results and download the official ranking certificate and report here:
